LHD 2000D

The LHD 2000D tracked utility loader has all the power to both easily and quickly load and move bulk material with its included standard bucket, but it has a much faster ROI because of a lower purchase price point compared to other similar machines. The compact design and tough treads of the LHD 2000D allow it to navigate in confined spaces and caters to all users needs with a wide variety of attachments available. The machines have durable construction and require minimal maintenance but are lightweight enough for a single axle trailer. Each machine includes a 25 HP Perkins Diesel Engine, standard skid steer controls and a standard bucket.
